DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This farm is approached by long dirt roads from Fort Schoolhouse Road and Charmel Drive, southwest of Manchester. It is located in a hollow, in a setting of fields and woods. The farm contains a house, barn, and outbuildings.

The house is two stories high, gable roofed, and modernized with new white siding. To its northwest is a large barn, which is intact.

The property may be that of G. Fueller or Kueller shown on the 1862 Martenet atlas of Carroll County, and of L. Kugle on the 1877 Lake, Griffing and Stevenson atlas of the county.
